MOTION SUBMITTING EXHIBIT 2 WAIVER

To the Honorable United States Magistrate Judge Judith Gail Dein:

On October 11, 2019, The Commonwealth of Puerto Rico (the “Debtor) filed a Motion Informing Compliance with Rule 2004 Request that had been filed by Cuerpo Organizado de la Policia, Inc. (“Movant” or “COPI”). (Docket Num. 8842). The movant respectfully understands that the debtor did not fully comply with the request for productions of documents made by COPI in their Motion filed on May 8, 2019. (Docket Num. 6871).

Employee Decision and Release

NOTICE

The employees who decide to agree to the payment of the informed amount of the debt for salary adjustment will receive a check for said amount paying off and settling the debt owed to them from previous years. This decision will be final and irrevocable and constitutes a full and absolute release, and a waiver of rights with regards to any actual or potential claim based on the employment relationship and/or the termination of same under any applicable law. This waiver of rights shall have the effect of a full settlement of any actual or potential action or right, known or unknown, that the employee has, may have, or may have had, related to his/her employment and the termination of same. The effect of this release and the corresponding waiver of rights shall be that of res judicata.

The employee guarantees and affirms that he/she has not filed, as of this time, any claim, complaint, suit, charge, or grievance, and that he/she has not requested an investigation, be it judicial, administrative, or otherwise, with any forum, whether judicial, administrative, or otherwise, in relation to the debt for salary adjustment, against the Released Parties. However, if YOU have filed any claim, complaint, suit, charge, or grievance, or if you have requested or initiated an investigation, whether judicial, administrative, or otherwise, in relation to the debt for salary adjustment, YOU shall dismiss, and hereby dismiss, voluntarily and with prejudice, said claim or claims, and request the closing and shelving with prejudice of any said claim or claims, complaint, suit, charge, grievance, or investigation against the Puerto Rico Police Department, that you may have requested, initiated, or joined.
